

Unlike human eyes, RADARSAT-2's eyes are special in that they can "see" or take images during the day or at night and in any type of weather conditions.